Themes, Events, etc.: Yankee Fair

This Saturday, November 2, historic Plymouth Church, Orange Street between Henry and Hicks, holds its annual Yankee Fair. Nothing to do with baseball loyalty (thank God), but instead to Congregationalist history going back to the Pilgrims. There will be many things for sale, including kids' and adults' clothing, toys, books, housewares, food, and so on. There will also be activities for kids, and live music. Admission is $25 for a family or caregiver with one child; $45 for two or more children and accompanying parents or caregivers; and a suggested donation of $10 for adults without kids. There's more information here.
